

Enough of lies

(Alexandre PARENT - Stéphane LEULIER - 2012)

When you were introduced to me, I had
So much inner pain to disguise
I wanted to get to know you, so bad
You came and gave me so much help inside

Now I'm bleeding
For being fooled again
Through my veins you
Slowly turned me into nothing

Am I smiling
Or is my mind going away
Are you leaving
Or am I pretending again
Enough of lies
Time has come to realise
Am I dreaming
Or is the end really coming

I thought I had forgotten you and all
The dark traces of our common past
But I have not forgiven you at all
For coming back again into my life

Now I'm needing
For being filled again
Through the years you
Slowly made a fool out of me
